

About Us

Our ultimate goal is not just conducting interviews, we aspire to create a unique and accessible app, which will be your one and only destination for all things crypto. Just imagine, every morning, instead of visiting hundreds of different websites and resources, all you have to do to find all the relevant information is launch our app and start scrolling. Yes, it should be that easy! Not only will you get access to all our Tokens and get up to news that you missed while resting your eyes, you can also discuss them with other users. But wait, it all sounds like any other crypto news source, what's so unique about it? We're glad you asked. What makes our resource stand out from the rest, is that apart from the latest news, we will also post all our interviews and forecasts of the most popular and influential people in the crypto industry. Our token can gain access to this revolutionary resource. So do yourself a favor and buy when the price drops.
